

Please just leave wisconsin's No Call List as it is. We were hard pressed as citizens to get this thing finally passed and now a bunch of banks want to have this changed? How about the bankers give me their home phone numbers and let the telemarketers call them all evening long and disrupt their evenings with the phone constantly ringing. How would they like it then? Please just leave well enough alone and forget the damn banks.